Local teams medal at Cal State Games

by Michael Krawczak

The Tenth Annual California State Games soccer competition took place throughout San Diego County July 10 - 12. Action saw players commuting between fields in Santee and the ARCO Olympic Training Center, 30 miles to the south.

Following three pool games each, the top four teams in each division advanced to semifinal matches on Sunday morning. Winners then met for the Gold Medal, with semifinal losers facing off for the Bronze.

When the final games were decided, five East County teams stood before the Olympic flame replica to receive hard-earned, well-deserved medals, and one young athlete received a very special personal honor.

El Cajon is the proud home to both the boys and girls under 16 gold medalists. That alone is quite an achievement for one city, but these two teams have more in common that just their home town. Both teams are named Hotspurs Elite, and both are coached by Sami Nejar and his assistant, Cliff Tabor.

The girls breezed through the tournament, with goalkeepers Autumn Moody and Meghan Jupin combining to allow only one goal.

After pool victories of 7-0, 8-0 and 4-0, the Elite prevailed in its semifinal contest, 5-1, then defeated Cypress in the final, 5-0.

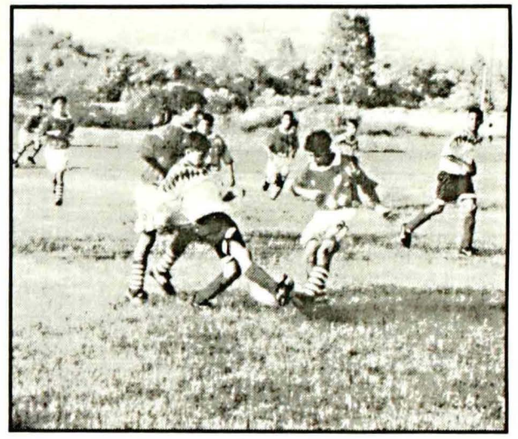
Laura Trask had a hat trick in the final, with Deserae Reese tallying the other pair. Becky Nollet had two assists. On defense, Nejar noted the play of Brianne Chamney, Hillary Coffelt, Liz Lusk, Jill Anderson and Diane Philpot.

"It was really neat playing on the same fields as the National team," said Nejar.

The boys Elite had a slightly tougher time of it, but also emerged on top. After an opening 1-1 tie in pool play, they bounced back with 3-0 and 11-0 shutout wins.

The Santee Rebels provided the closest competition of the tournament in the semifinal, which the Elite won, 2-1.

In the final against the South Bay Rangers, El Cajon prevailed, 4-0. Scoring in the final were David Yemane, Braden Mann, Chris Yu and Josh Factuar, with assists by Yu, Brock Schemerhorn and Mat Taylor. Nejar praised the play of goalkeeper Zack Dorovski, and defenders Jason Fels, Alex Rodriguez, Danny Segnit, and Josh Smith.



Surrounding a Westchester Seahawks opponent (blue pants) are two Santee AYSO Waldos players during the local team's opening match in the California Games. The match, played July 10 at Rio Seco School in Santee, ended in a 2-2 draw. Santee advanced to the semifinals before losing, but went on to win the third place bronze medal. Photo by Mike Krawczak

Though the cores of both of these two club teams have been together for several years, this was just the second tournament each for the '98 squads. Not surprisingly, both teams are two-time winners.

The girls team took first at San Bernardino. The boys recently returned from a triumphant tour of Europe, where they won a tournament in Switzerland, and also attended the Germany vs. Iran World Cup match.

Despite being edged by El Cajon, 2-1, in the semifinal, the Santee Rebels had an outstanding tournament, taking the Boys Under 16 Bronze Medal.

In the opening pool game against Cypress, Noah Diaz scored Santee's lone goal in a 1-1 tie. Two pool wins, including a 4-0 contest in which Michael Hunter scored all four goals, propelled the Rebels into Sunday games.

Cal Games

against Indio, the Rebels won handily, 5-1. Hunter, Craig Wirich, and Danny Stewart each scored a goal. Jerry Bell notched two goals, including one on a diving header.

Coach Kevin Smith singled out the contributions of defenders Brooks Wilson, Ryan Henshaw, Scott Caraveo, Chris Deschamps and Johan Silva.

The Santee Cyclones took the Girls Under 14 Bronze Medal with a 4-2 win over the South Bay Aguilas. Santee Coach Jay Carpenter singled out the play of goalkeepers Amy Thessen, Sheena Roll and Jacque Dale.

A win and two ties in pool play allowed the Cyclones to advance to the semifinal. The 3-1 loss there to Westminster set Santee up to play for the Bronze. The Cyclones played solid defense, and had several players scoring goals throughout the tournament.

"There was well-rounded participation by all," noted Carpenter.

Also bringing the Bronze home to Santee was the boys Under 12 Waldos. Competing in a large division of 16 teams, the Waldos rose above 14 challengers.

Opening pool play with a 2-2 tie against Westchester, the Waldos followed up with shutout victories over La Mesa United and Garden Grove to win their pool.

In the semifinal against Riverside, the Waldos lost 5-3, for only their second defeat in 23 games.

Coach Mike Usher philosophized, "Players win games; coaches lose them."

The Waldos recouped against Indio, winning 3-1 to secure third place. Usher lauded the play of goalkeeper Daniel Krawczak and defenders Andrew Budde, Jack Westphall, Anthony Fortini, Chris Davis, Stephen Nager and Darren Cichocki.

Ryan Bartholomew led Santee scorers with six goals. Josh Vazquez, who had scored only one pre-tournament goal, shined throughout the weekend, scoring four goals.

Brian Dunne had two goals. Rounding out Waldos scoring with one goal each were Fortini, Zach Shephard, Bradley Reese and Philip Salata.

"We went a long way toward proving that the quality of play in AYSO is comparable to that in a lot of club teams," beamed a proud Usher.

Santee is also home to Kathy Bunkers, the newly named female soccer athlete of the year. Bunkers, 16, was nominated by Pam Merrin, coach of her girls under 16 team, Second Wind.

Merrin declared, "Kathy is always willing to do something, She exemplifies sportsmanship on the field, tries to boost morale and is a quiet team leader."

Community service is a key component of this award. Bunkers is a volunteer referee at lower division games, where she encourages the younger children to learn and play the game.

At both the state games and the Santee Spring Tournament, she provided volunteer help with security, check-ins, scheduling and maps.

A junior at West Hills High School, Bunkers maintains a 3.8 GPA, while also participating in field hockey and track.

At the player's party on Saturday evening, Bunkers received a plaque commemorating her selection.

"I was surprised," she declared. "I didn't even know you could win this."

All in all, another successful tournament for East County players and teams. This is getting to be a habit.
